

SANATION OF SITES CONTAMINATED BY DEPLETED URANIUM IN THE SOUTH OF SERBIA

VINČA Institute is taking part in the long-term project of decontaminating several areas in the south of Serbia affected by the use of depleted uranium rounds fired during NATO air raids in the year 1999

The sanitation of affected areas is being financed by the Ministry of Science and Environment Protection – Directorate for Environmental Protection

